

Call for papers to a workshop on Economics of education and education policy

June 3-4, 2013 in Uppsala

The Institute for Evaluation of Labour Market and Education Policy (IFAU) and Uppsala Centre for Labour Studies (UCLS) invite researchers interested in the economics of education and education policy to present their research and discuss the work of peers during a two day workshop.

The workshop will contain both contributed and invited papers, and will host two keynote speakers; Susan Dynarski, University of Michigan, and David Figlio, Northwestern University. Susan and David will both present ongoing research and give an overview of the field's current and future challenges.

The workshop takes place at IFAU in Uppsala and is scheduled from the morning of June 3rd to the late afternoon of June 4th. The number of participants is limited to 30, and we expect to have about 8-10 contributed papers.

We particularly encourage PhD-students and junior researchers to submit their papers to the workshop.

Papers submitted to the meeting should be sent to anette.olsson@ifau.uu.se by April 15. The organizers will communicate which papers that are accepted to the workshop by April 30.

Presenters of accepted papers and other participants should register by May 10 by sending an email to anette.olsson@ifau.uu.se. (Please include if you have any special dietary requirements for the conference lunches.)

Welcome!
