

Call for papers to the Conference on immigration and labor market integration

October 19-20, 2010 at Rånäs Slott

The Institute for Labour Market Policy Evaluation (IFAU) and Uppsala Center for Labor Studies (UCLS) invite submissions of papers to the Conference on immigration and labor market integration. The conference is organized in cooperation with Stockholm University Linneaus Center for Integration Studies (SULCIS) with financial support from FAS.

The conference will take place at Rånäs Slott (30 minutes from Arlanda Airport) starting with lunch October 19 and ending after lunch October 20.

The focus of the conference will be on quantitative studies on economic and social aspects of immigration and integration. We welcome submissions from different disciplines, including economics, sociology and geography. We expect to have 8-10 presentations from Swedish researchers and invited international guests. The number of participants is limited to 30.

Accommodation and conference fees will be covered by the organizers. There is also limited funding available for travel expenses; please indicate in your submission if you need financial support in this respect.

Papers should be submitted to Anette Olsson anette.olsson@ifau.uu.se by August 20.

Presenters of accepted papers and other persons wishing to attend should register by September 15 to Anette Olsson. Please include whether you require a hotel accommodation and if you have any dietary requirements.

Welcome to Rånäs Slott!
